

KMCH Official Song Lyrics (English Translation)

In the evergreen land of Assam
In the plains of Gaurang
Of the abode of wisdom
We are a flock of;
Efficient healer
(Our morale is boundless)³

Service to mankind is (our religion)²
The power of science is our support;
There will always be a smile on the patient's face
The flame of knowledge will always remain glowing.

In Jaulia Dewan (Birgwhshri's land)²
With the caring hands of mother Champavati;
With the resonating melody of Kham Serja Chifung
Embracing everyone we'll keep our journey going.

Ever loving our K.M.C.
May there be eternal prosperity to our K.M.C.
Long live our K.M.C.
